Short Answer Reading Comprehension and Personal Experience Writing Prompt

1. In your own words, explain the author's main point. What is the author writing about and what does the author want readers to think, feel, or do about it? (two to three complete sentences)

2. In your own words, explain one of the author's supporting points. What reasons, examples, or details does the author provide in order to explain the main viewpoint? (two to three complete sentences)

3. Write a paragraph about this topic using your own experiences and observations as support.